

Radley CE Primary School Equality and Social Inclusion Policy

Equality Statement

Legal Duties

As a school we welcome our duties under the Equality Act 2010. The general duties are to:

- eliminate discrimination,
- advance equality of opportunity
- foster good relations

We understand the principal of the act and the work needed to ensure that those with protected characteristics are not discriminated against and are given equality of opportunity. A protected characteristic under the act covers the groups listed below:

- age (for employees not for service provision),
- disability
- race
- sex (including issues of transgender)
- gender reassignment
- maternity and pregnancy
- religion and belief,
- sexual orientation
- Marriage and Civil Partnership (for employees)

In order to meet our general duties, listed above, the law requires us to undertake some specific actions to demonstrate how we meet the requirements. These are to:

- Publish equality information – to demonstrate compliance with the general duty across its functions.
We will not publish any information that can specifically identify any child
- Prepare and publish equality objectives

To do this we will collect data related to the protected characteristics above and analyse this data to determine our focus for our equality objectives. The data will be assessed across our core provisions as a school. This will include the following functions:

- Admissions
- Attendance
- Attainment
- Exclusions
- Prejudice related incidents

Our objectives will detail how we will ensure equality is applied to the services listed above - where we find evidence other functions have a significant impact on any particular group we will include work in this area.

We also welcome our duty under the Education and Inspections Act 2006 to promote community cohesion. We recognise that these duties reflect international human rights standards as expressed in the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child, the UN Convention on the Rights of People with Disabilities, and the Human Rights Act 1998. In fulfilling our legal obligations we will:

- Recognise and respect diversity
- Foster positive attitudes and relationships, and a shared sense of belonging

- Observe good equalities practice, including staff recruitment, retention and development
- Aim to reduce and remove existing inequalities and barriers
- Consult and involve widely
- Strive to ensure that society will benefit

Values

Radley CE Primary School and FSU aims for every child to achieve success to the best of their ability in a welcoming centre of learning. Christian values, principles and standards lie at the heart of our education. Our school will be a place where every child is valued and their individuality and achievements celebrated. All children, regardless of differences in race, gender and faith, will be respected and encouraged to become responsible global citizens. Children will be encouraged to develop positive reflective attitudes that lead to high personal and academic standards. Our positive approach to behaviour will ensure that all children are given the opportunity to learn and play in a calm, safe environment. An atmosphere of openness, trust and respect will be encouraged between the children, their parents and the wider school community to foster good communications to the benefit of all.

Our Aims

- Our aim at Radley CE Primary School is to develop the full potential of every child academically, creatively, socially, and physically, whatever their ability, in a caring, Christian environment.
- We endeavour to work co-operatively with parents and carers to make sure that information is shared for the benefit of the children in our care.
- We aim to play an active part in our parish and to serve the community of Radley, and beyond, well.

Addressing Prejudice Related Incidents

The school is opposed to all forms of prejudice and we recognise that children and young people who experience any form of prejudice related discrimination may fair less well in the education system. We provide both our pupils and staff with an awareness of the impact of prejudice in order to prevent any incidents. If incidents still occur we address them immediately and report them to the Local Authority.

Responsibility

We believe that promoting Equality is the whole school's responsibility:
